

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE
DEPARTMENT OF ENVIRONMENTAL SERVICES
WATER COUNCIL

RECEIVED

AUG 29 2003

03-09 WC

Docket No. 03-09WC

ASSENTED TO MOTION TO CONTINUE

NOW COMES the Town of Chester Conservation Commission by and through its attorneys, Wadleigh, Starr & Peters, PLLC and respectfully moves to continue the hearing in this matter from the September 10, 2003 council meeting to the November council meeting, and in support thereof says as follows:

1. The parties have entered into substantive settlement discussions.
  2. The settlement discussions require that the parties perform certain activities which will not be completed prior to the September 10, 2003 hearing date.
  3. The interests of justice and economy warrant that this matter be continued until the November 2003 Water Council hearing in order to permit the parties to fully determine whether or not a settlement in this matter will be effectuated.
  4. The Department of Environmental Services assents to this Motion to Continue.
- The applicant, Bryan Remillard assents to this Motion to Continue.

WHEREFORE the Town of Chester Conservation Commission respectfully requests that the Water Council:

- A. Continue this matter to its November 2003 hearing;

B. Grant such other and further relief as the Council deems just and appropriate.

Respectfully submitted,

CHESTER CONSERVATION
COMMISSION

By its attorneys,
Wadleigh, Starr & Peters, PLLC
